

Sommelier Selections

Napa Valley, Merlot, Keenan Mailbox 2020..... $185

Yeah, yeah, yeah, I've heard it before, "I just don't like Merlot." But it's a wine like Keenan's expression that will restore your faith in Merlot. It reminds me of John Singer Sargent's timeless Madame X, poised in her black velvet gown; an American holding her own in Paris. Mailbox is perfectly elegant. Its marked aromas of damp earth and violets set the stage for a palette of earthy cocoa and dark fruit with a layered and extremely long finish. While you may not like Merlot on the label, I bet you'll love this one in your glass.

Cornas, Aurelien Chatagnier, 2020..... $210

Aurelien Chatagnier is one of the most exciting young winemakers in the Rhône. His 2020 Cornas demonstrates why. It embodies the elegance that one expects from Syrah grown in the northern Rhone. The depth of this wine is supported by moderate tannins and highlighted with a hint of freshly ground black pepper. Its aroma rich with dark fruit and purple flowers accented by undertones of olives and wet earth.

Tuscany, Bibi Graetz, Testamatta, 2020..... $225

Inspired by the subtle and complex Pinot Noirs of Richebourg in Burgundy, Bibi Graetz moved to make a more delicate and transparent expression of Sangiovese from vines on his family's estate. As we embark upon summer in Houston, this vibrant result will tick a lot of boxes for the wine-loving diner. Its moderate body and fine-grained tannins will stand up to the richness of a steak, while its bright palate of strawberry, sour cherry, and citrus zest will enhance the delicate flavors of fish and seafood. The silky mouthfeel and nimble character of Testamatta should bring a breath of Tuscan air to your table.

Nuits-Saint-Georges, Patrice Rion, "Aux Barrières" 2020..... $225

Nuits-Saint-Georges is not your run-of-the-mill Burgundy. When it's made well, it is complex with a brilliant richness on the mid-palate and a presence in your mouth like a perfect houseguest, enduring enough to engage you but just ephemeral enough to leave you wanting more. This NSG does just that. With a foundation of the expected red fruit and spice flavors of a good French pinot noir, the terroir shows off its iron-richness with a ferric tang that pairs perfectly with grilled meat. This is why the bone-in ribeye with Nuits-Saint-Georges pairing remains one of my all-time favorites.

Sonoma County, Cabernet Sauvignon, Bricoleur Kick Ranch 2019..... $245

The grapes for this sophomore release of Cabernet come from a parcel on Spring Mountain at the Sonoma/Napa border. As such, it offers an elegantly structured wine, full-bodied but well-balanced with a refined interplay between weight and freshness. Its tannic structure is Midcentury in style, pronounced but not excessive and nearly devoid of unnecessary lines. The complex palate is replete with red and purple fruit layered with exotic spices. Overall, this is a classic California Cabernet worthy of an excellent steak or even just excellent conversation.

Chambolle-Musigny, Lignier-Michelot, 2021 $325

Chambolle-Musigny is considered one of the most "feminine" appellations of Burgundy. The Lignier-Michelot expression is elegant and nearly delicate. It is fragrant with aromas of bright red fruit and damp earth. On the palate the fruit is round and beautiful, highlighted by fresh herbs, and supported by refined tannins. Even though young, it is dignified. Like Audrey Hepburn in Roman Holiday, appropriate and stunning, yet its considerable potential is evident.
