Lexey's Selections

I'm excited to do a rotating feature on our wine list. This page will showcase a few off menu selections representing different regions of the wine world. There are some really fun bottles on here that I would love to crack open myself, so I look forward to opening them for you. These are first come first serve, and 50% off on Wednesdays and Thursdays!
Cheers!

Whites

- 2010 Chardonnay, Russian River, Château Boswell Ritchie's Vineyard 175
Chateau Boswell celebrated its 40th anniversary this year, but sadly, a lot of the winery was ravaged in the Glass Fire in September. Showing lush and opulent notes of tropical fruits with lemon oil and vanilla, touches of brioche and caramel on the finish, this is the epitome of a marriage between Cali Chardy party and high-end white Burgundy.
- 2018 Sauvignon Blanc/Semillon, Bordeaux, Château Lagrave-Martillac 120
A classified growth since 1953, the Latour Martillac Estate got its name from the Tower in the main courtyard, vestige of a small fort built in Martillac in the 12th century by the forefathers of the famous philosopher and vine grower Montesquieu. This is super fresh and aromatic with citrus and white peach on the palate and a bright lingering acidity.

Rose

- 2019 Grenache/Syrah/Mourvedre, Provence, Rose Gold 55
Born and raised in Texas, Casey Barber started Rose Gold with an intent to showcase what well-made Rose can accomplish. She has created a beautiful expression of rose that highlights bright red fruits balanced by wildflowers and nervy minerality. The result is what we all want: a totally crushable and well-balanced wine.

Reds

- 2019 Pais Viejo, Maule Valley, Bouchon 85
This is a crazy little property in the Maule Valley that utilizes dry farming techniques and practices organic and sustainable viticulture. The vines are so old that they are actually climbing up the trees and hanging from the branches. As a result, the fruit is actually picked from underneath the vines. This Pais is juicy, fresh, and light, with strawberry and sour cherry notes.
- 2016 Grenache, Rhone, Domaine de Cristia 75
This light and silky grenache is fruit forward in its approach with an undercurrent of kirsch and pepper notes. This a fun, easy-breezy table wine.
- 2016 Pinot Noir, Chorey-les-Beaune, Tollot-Beaut 135
I have never turned down a glass of Burgundy, and I will most certainly grab a glass from Tollot-Beaut. This winery dates back to the 1880's and was among the first to start exporting their wines to the U.S. This little CLB is bright and perfumed, showcasing red cherries, a slight earthy character, and a beautiful backbone of acidity.
- 2006 Grenache/Shiraz/Mourvedre, Swartland, Spice Route Malabar 145
I stumbled across this bottling and immediately called a friend of mine from South Africa. After she waxed poetic about the producer, I was more than excited to crack a bottle. Reminiscent of old Bordeaux balanced out with dark fruits and elegant structure, this is definitely a fun back-vintage wine that pairs incredibly with food.
- 2016 Cabernet/Merlot, Haut-Medoc, Château Cantemerle 5th Cru Classé 140
5th growth Bordeaux? Why not?? Cantemerle is one of my favorite 5th growths. Here we are getting the wine-making pedigree without the million-dollar price point. Earthy, gravelly, balanced, expressive, with structure for days. Decant recommended.
